

E-Commerce

We have changed our approach to e-commerce systems to better support our client base. Our product offers retail and wholesale companies an out of the box product.

- The new shopping cart we use has the strength of a $5000.00 cart at a fraction of the cost.
- The cart can handle any design and layout, thus making it very versatile.
- clients have total control over the inventory in their online store.
- All payment gateways are supported. (if not already available I can create a payment module to integrate with your online payment gateway)
